ment for the due fulfilment of the contract, and to furnish security as specified in para 3 below or if the tenderer withdraws from his tender before the acceptance or non-acceptance of his tender is communicated to him. In the case of rejected tenders, the earnest money will be returned.

3. The successful tenderer will be required to execute an agreement within a week from the date of acceptance of tender, binding himself to the conditions of the contract and to deposit the amount noted in column 6 as security for the due fulfilment of the contract. The amount so deposited will be returned to him on the termination of the contract at the end of the period. Supplies will have to commence from 15th October 1925.

4. The rates quoted should include the cost of free delivery at places noted in column 4 against each, and the tenders should be superscribed as "TENDERS FOR WHEAT BRAN, SALT, etc., for the Yellachihalli Sheep Farm."

5. Such officer as the Officer in charge, Live Stock Section, may appoint for the purpose, will indent on the contractor for the articles required per month and the contractor should supply the quantity indented for (monthly) at the appointed place and obtain receipts in token of the supply made. The contractor should be prepared to supply any additional quantities that may be required at the contract rate.

6. The contractor should present his bills once a month for supplies made by him during the month to such officers at Bangalore and Mysore, as the Officer in charge, Live Stock Section may direct, who will arrange for payments of the amount due to the contractor.

7. No application from the contractor for any sort of concession whatever in consequence of the rise in the prices of the articles in the market due to scarcity or other causes, will be considered.

8. Should the contractor fail to comply with any of the conditions detailed above, his contract will be forthwith cancelled and deposit amount forfeited to Government. The contractor will also be bound to make good any loss which may arise from his failure to supply the articles contracted for, or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contract in the local market at higher rates than those contracted for.

9. The Officer in charge, Live Stock Section, reserves to himself the right of finally accepting or rejecting any tender without assigning any reason therefor.

10. The supplies are to be made according to the approved samples.
